Incorporated Management Committee of St. Louis School (the IMC)
Personal Data Collection Statement

The Incorporated Management Committee of St. Louis School (“the IMC”) is committed to protecting the personal data of its donors, strictly complying with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (“the Ordinance”).

1 Purpose of Data Collection

- 1.1 The IMC collects your personal data, including name, contact information, and donation details, in a fair and lawful manner for processing your donation, such as handling the donation, arranging bank transfers, issuing donation receipts, and acknowledging donations. With your consent, your personal data may be used for future correspondence, fund-raising appeals, activity promotions, newsletters, collecting opinions, or other promotional purposes.
- 1.2 Provision of your personal data to the IMC is voluntary. However, some information is mandatory to process your donation. If the personal data provided is insufficient, the IMC may be unable to process your donation request.

2 Retention of Personal Data

- 2.1 Unless required otherwise by law, the IMC will not retain your personal data longer than is necessary for the fulfillment of the collection purpose. Personal data will be erased after the purpose is fulfilled or within the shortest timeframe specified by relevant laws and regulations.
- 2.2 The IMC will take all practicable steps to ensure your personal data is protected from unauthorized or accidental access, processing, or erasure.

3 Use of Personal Data

- 3.1 The IMC will never sell your personal data to third parties.
- 3.2 The personal data you provide is handled on a need-to-know basis by the IMC’s staff or the staff of the St. Louis School. Your data may, when necessary, be disclosed to:
 - a. Banks to process your donation instructions and arrangements;
 - b. Service providers, who are bound by confidentiality agreements, including but not limited to data management, mailing, and confidential document disposal;
 - c. Auditors or regulatory bodies assessing the IMC’s financial status and performance;
 - d. St. Louis Old Boys Association (SLOBA), for verification purposes and to assist in updating their membership database and contact list;
 - e. Persons or institutions as required or authorized by law.
- 3.3 To evaluate fund-raising performance, the IMC may compile donation statistics, ensuring no identifiable personal data is included to safeguard donor privacy.
- 3.4 The IMC may maintain contact with you to provide updates on events and services or to gather feedback, via post, email, phone, SMS, or fax. Personal data will only be used for these purposes with your consent.

4 Access and Correction of Personal Data

- 4.1 You have the right to request access to or correction of your personal data held by the IMC at any time.
- 4.2 Under the Ordinance, the IMC will comply with data access requests unless the data has been erased after fulfilling its purpose. The IMC will provide a reply and a copy of the data within 40 days of receiving the request, and may charge a reasonable fee for doing so.
- 4.3 The IMC may deny data correction requests if:
 - a. The request is not in writing;
 - b. Insufficient information is provided to verify the requester’s identity as the data subject or authorized person;
 - c. Complying with the request would reveal another individual’s data;
 - d. The data held is accurate and does not require correction;
 - e. Sufficient information to confirm inaccuracy is not provided;
 - f. The correction requested is deemed inaccurate by the IMC;
 - g. Compliance with the request is prohibited under the Ordinance or other applicable laws;
 - h. Another data user prevents compliance with the request.

5 Update of Personal Data Collection Statement

The IMC may update this Personal Data Collection Statement (“Statement”) periodically. Updated versions will be posted on the IMC’s official website. If there are changes to the purpose of data collection, the IMC will seek your consent before using your data for new purposes.
